

“With extensive experience in many industries, Angelo works closely with business owners to increase wealth and achieve goals”

Director, Business Solutions

Currently a director of RSM Bird Cameron's Wagga Wagga office, Angelo has been involved in consulting for 31 years, providing advice on taxation, management and planning.

With his extensive experience in agriculture, manufacturing, professional services and retailing, Angelo is able to work closely with business owners to increase wealth and achieve goals.

Angelo is able to help businesses maximise profit by using business benchmarks, identifying key taxation planning issues and reviewing financing arrangements. He also provides succession planning and superannuation advice to ensure the long term viability of the business

Principal area of practice

Angelo consults closely with businesses to provide advice on:

- tax for businesses including Capital Gains Tax, Income Tax and Fringe Benefits Tax;
- planning and implementing strategies for the GST and assessing the impact this will have on business cashflow;
- superannuation and the set up and administration of self managed funds;
- evaluation of investment proposals;
- preparation of cashflow and profit statements;
- wealth statements;
- strategic business planning and advice on business structures such as companies, trusts, partnerships.

Angelo can also negotiate successful business contracts with large corporations for the sale of a business, future association and product sales. Working with other advisors, including Solicitors, Angelo is able to cover all aspects of purchase and sale of a business as well as succession planning issues such as Wills.
