

Hotel Specialisation

RSM Bird Cameron has the experience and expertise in the hospitality industry to provide a range of services which will assist owners, lenders and investors in the acquisition or sale of hotels, providing management advice in the operation of hotel properties, providing specialist accounting services and specialist taxation services and if necessary in acting as receivers and managers.

Our specialist team has extensive experience in the hotel industry over many years acting for lenders, owners and operators. This experience can be applied for the benefit of owners, lenders and investors in all phases of their ownership, including acquisition, sale and ongoing trading.

Our staff have been involved with a wide range of hotel related properties, ranging from corner pubs in the Sydney metropolitan area, to five-star resorts, country motels, major CBD hotels, and island resorts. This vast experience provides an excellent background to assist lenders and owners in dealing with existing investments.

In addition, we have access to a wide range of industry specialists who can provide specific expertise on various matters. Access to these specialists has been obtained through our association in the hotel industry over many years and can be called upon at short notice for a client's benefit.

Our services to the industry are designed to ensure that a disciplined approach is applied to the management of the business and the financial operations of the hotel asset.

Our experience has shown that this approach has led to management, lenders and investors gaining a greater understanding of how a business operates leading to informed business decisions resulting in better financial management and increased profitability.

Our hotel specialist division is currently headed by Mr Peter Marsden, a Partner of the firm, who has in excess of 20 years experience dealing in these types of matters. This experience has been used by major banks, major hotel operators and institutional investors in providing specific advice on the sale and acquisition of hotel properties, negotiating management agreements, review of sales and marketing budgets, operational reviews, financial analysis and profit and loss budget and cash flow for hotels and in acting as receivers and managers.

Detailed over the page is a list of the hotels, pubs and clubs for whom our specialist team have acted in the past.
